Description

The building itself comprises a modern commercial building situated on the Piazza in Portishead.

The available accommodation is on the second floor and is fully carpeted with suspended ceilings and LG7 type lighting, gas fired central heating with perimeter radiators, painted walls and intercom phone entry system. The office also benefits from a kitchenette and WC facilities.

Location

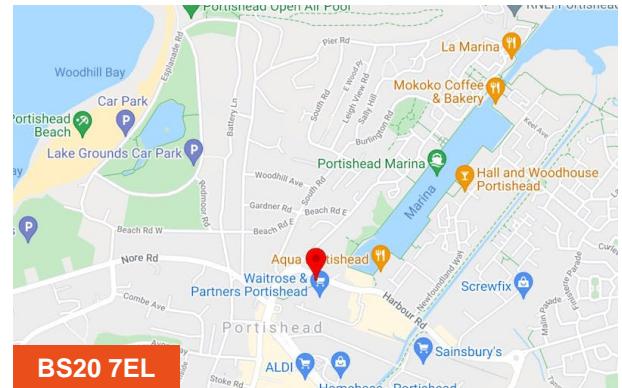

Block DD is situated on the M369, in Portishead approximately 1.5 miles from Junction 19 of the M5 and in turn providing easy access to the M4/M5 interchange. Bristol city centre is approximately 9.5 miles west of this expanding coastal town making it a popular location.

The property itself is located on the Piazza directly in front of Waitrose on Harbour Road, and forms part of a mixed-use development that also includes Lidl, Travelodge and Majestic Wine to name a few. This development has led to the High Street becoming a vibrant location which links from the old town through to the new, with the subject property close to the point the two areas meet.
