Childcare Nursery – Tiger Moth Fields, Lyneham

Location

Lyneham is situated between the Cotswolds and North Wessex Downs, just three miles south of the M4, and a 20 -minute drive away from Swindon town Centre.

Lyneham has a population of approx. 5,460 (2011 Census). The village is also the home of RAF Lyneham.

The plot itself is located at the south-east corner of the Bellway development, known as Tigermoth Fields and is surrounded by Landscaped parkland.

The Nursery site can be accessed via the access road off Chippenham Road at the north east of the site or via one of the many pedestrian and cycle routes.

Construction of the residential scheme is underway and it is estimated that there will be 41 Completions in 2026, 60 Completions in 2027, 49 Completions in 2028, 50 Completions in 2029. All site wide Public open space / infrastructure will be complete before end of 2029.

Description

The Childcare Nursery plot extends to circa 0.5 acres (0.2 hectares). It is located within a wider residential development scheme of up to 200 dwellings and an allocation for 2,600 sq. m of business use.

The allocation refers to up to 600 sq. m of D1 Community Uses and proposed scheme drawings are available by requesting access to the Data Room.

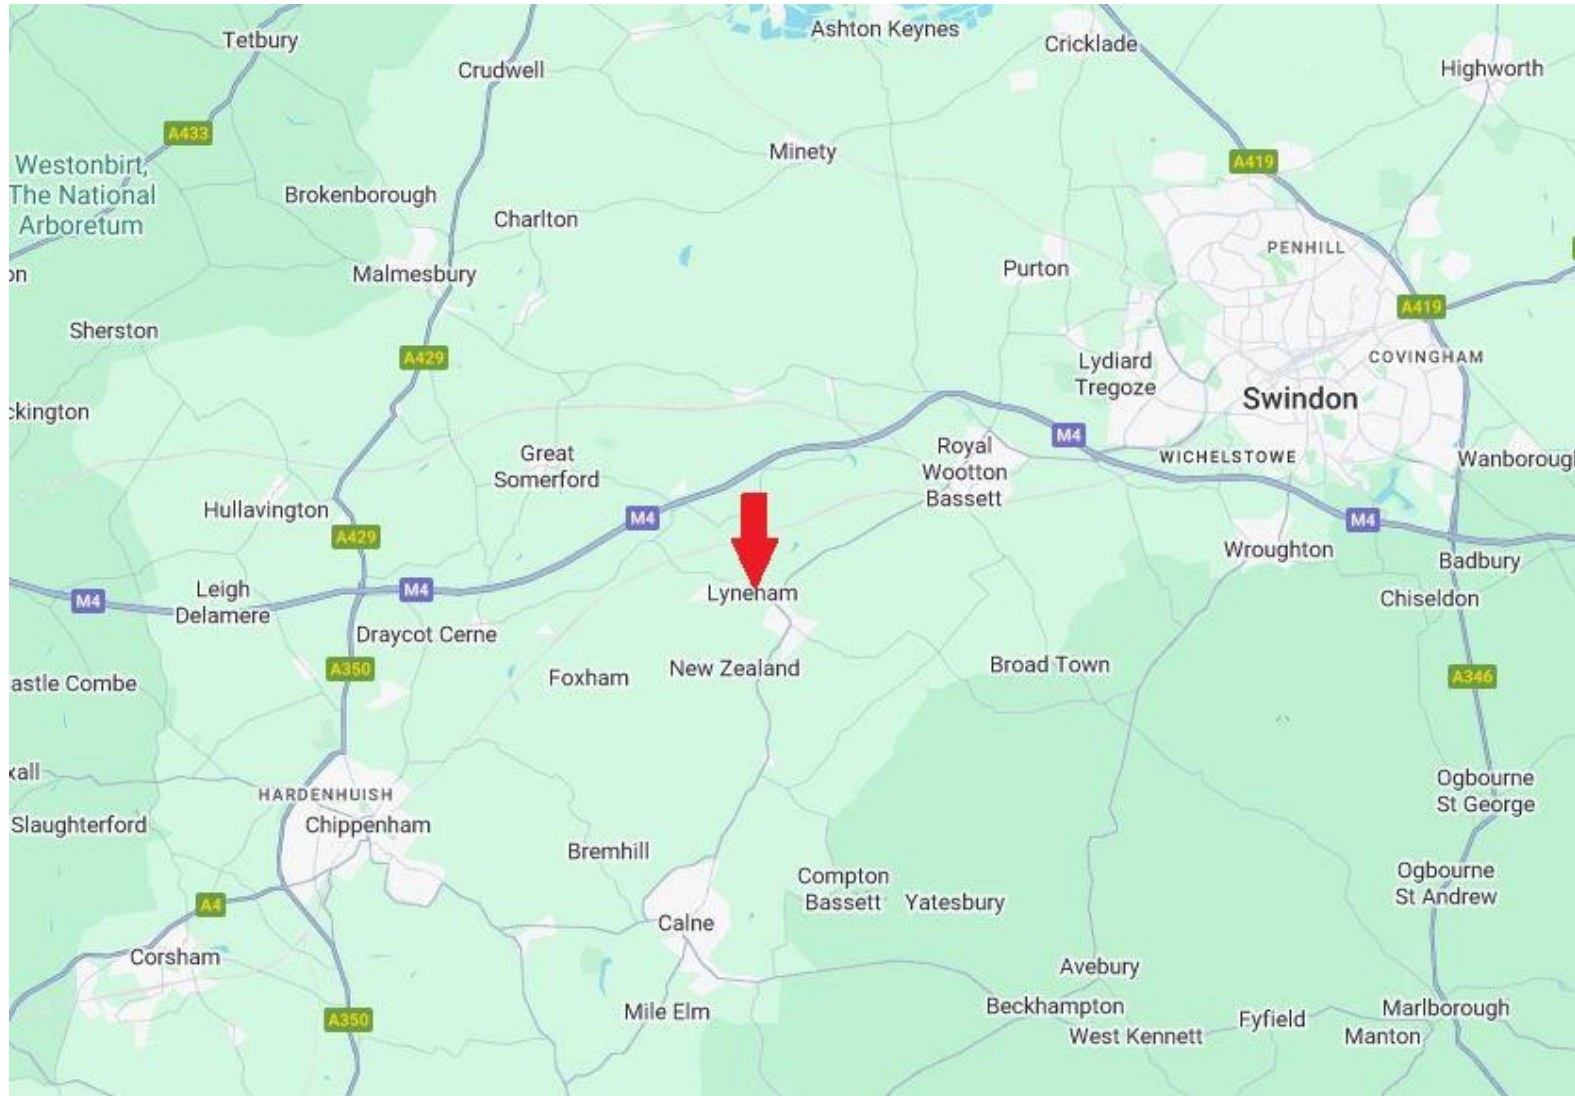

The allocated plot sits within a pleasant landscaped section of the development away from the danger of busy traffic routes, as seen in the site plan. It is easily accessible via car, with ample space for staff and customer parking as well as pick-up and drop-off.

The proposed nursery design drawings include a secure external play area. However, the plot is also conveniently located next to an informal recreation zone.
